

9/22/16

CONTINENTAL-AERO UNVEILS UPDATED WEBSITE

Lyndhurst, NJ,

September 22, 2016,

Jenn McCoy of Continental-Aero at corporate HQ in Lyndhurst NJ announced this morning the first stage of their new website. Patrick Buending, located in Alsip, said along with the new design, Continental-Aero has begun to accept online orders from customers. Continental-Aero has added an education section, along with tutorials and eventually, instructional videos regarding locknuts. Additional features have been added to the on-line catalog.

Continental-Aero a division of Tramec LLC. Since 1948, Continental-Aero is famous for and stocks one of the largest locknut inventories with its branded Purple Color Nylon Tork Locknuts, All-Metal Locknuts, and Gr 5 & Gr 8 Finished Hex Nuts.

When quality is demanded and reliability is expected within an extremely price efficient framework, the prime source is Continental-Aero.

For more information about this topic, please email patrickb@continental-aero.com